HOUSE BILL No. 1134

A BILL FOR AN ACT to amend the Indiana Code concerning labor and industrial safety.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Indiana:

SECTION 1. IC 22-2-13 IS ADDED TO THE INDIANA CODE AS A NEW CHAPTER TO READ AS FOLLOWS [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004]:

Chapter 13. Parental Leave for School Conferences

Sec. 1. As used in this chapter, "child" means an individual:

(1) who is:

(A) the biological child;

(B) the adopted child;

(C) the foster child;

(D) the stepchild; or

(E) the ward;

of an employee; and

(2) who is enrolled in a school in:

(A) Indiana; or

(B) a state that shares a common boundary with Indiana.

Sec. 2. As used in this chapter, "commissioner" refers to the commissioner of labor.

Sec. 3. As used in this chapter, "employee" means an individual who:

(1) has been employed for at least twelve (12) months by an employer from whom the leave is requested under this chapter; and

(2) has worked an average number of hours per week equal to at least fifty percent (50%) of a full-time equivalent position as defined:

(A) in a bona fide agreement between the employer and the employee;

(B) by the employer's personnel policies or practices; or

(C) in a negotiated collective bargaining agreement or settlement agreement.

The term does not include an independent contractor.

Sec. 4. As used in this chapter, "employer" means:

(1) an individual;

(2) a partnership;

(3) an association;

(4) a limited liability company;

(5) a corporation;

(6) a business trust;

(7) the state;

(8) a municipal corporation (as defined in IC 36-1-2-10); or

(9) a nonprofit organization;

that employs at least fifty (50) employees for each working day during each of twenty (20) or more calendar weeks in the current or preceding calendar year.

Sec. 5. As used in this chapter, "school" means any of the following:

(1) An elementary or a secondary school maintained by:

(A) a public school corporation (as defined in IC 20-10.1-1-1);

(B) a non-public school corporation (as defined in IC 20-10.1-1-3); or

(C) a charter school (as defined in IC 20-5.5-1-4).

(2) A day care center (as defined in IC 20-9.1-5-6.5).

(3) A preschool organization offering preschool training not part of a public or non-public school corporation.

Sec. 6. An employee is entitled to take paid leave totaling not more than eight (8) hours in any twelve (12) month period to attend school conferences or other school activities directly related to the educational advancement of a child when the conferences or activities cannot be scheduled during the employee's nonwork hours.

Sec. 7. The leave described in section 6 of this chapter is subject to the following conditions:

(1) The employee and the employer shall make a reasonable effort to schedule the leave at a mutually convenient time so as not to unduly disrupt the employer's operations.

(2) The employer may require an employee to submit a written request for the leave at least seven (7) days before the time desired for the leave. When the need for the leave is not reasonably foreseeable, the employee shall give as much notice as is practicable.

(3) The employer may require the employee to furnish a written verification from the child's school that the employee attended the conference or other activity at the school during the time of the leave. If an employer requires an employee to submit a verification, the employee:

(A) shall submit the verification not later than two (2) days after the date of the school visitation; or

(B) if the employee does not comply with clause (A), is subject to the employer's standard discipline imposed for an unexcused absence from work.

Sec. 8. A notice in a form approved by the commissioner setting forth the rights of employees under this chapter must be conspicuously and continuously posted by the employer in the area in which employees are routine employed or disseminated to the employees in a manner reasonably intended to give notice.

Sec. 9. A person may not discharge or otherwise discriminate against a person who does any of the following:

(1) Files a complaint, institutes a proceeding, or causes another person to file a complaint or institute a proceeding concerning the rights and duties under this chapter.

(2) Assists or intends to assist in an investigation or a proceeding concerning the rights and duties under this chapter.

(3) Testifies or intends to testify in an investigation or a proceeding concerning the rights and duties under this chapter.

Sec. 10. The commissioner may adopt rules under IC 4-22-2 to implement this chapter.

Sec. 11. The commissioner shall enforce this chapter.

Sec. 12. (a) A person who is aggrieved by an alleged violation of the chapter may file a written complaint with the commissioner not later than thirty (30) days after the earlier of the date that the person discovers or should have discovered the violation.

(b) If a complaint is filed with the commissioner under subsection (a), the commissioner shall investigate the complaint and attempt to informally resolve the complaint.

(c) If a dispute is not informally resolved within one hundred twenty (120) days after the commissioner receives the complaint, the commissioner shall initiate a proceeding under IC 4-21.5-3-6 and adjudicate the complaint under IC 4-21.5-3. The commissioner shall join the complainant and each person who is alleged to have committed a violation under this chapter as parties to the proceeding. Unless the parties to the proceeding agree to a later date or the interests of justice require, the presiding officer in the proceeding shall schedule a hearing on the complaint to be held not later than one hundred eighty (180) days after the commissioner receives the complaint.

Sec. 13. The commissioner may issue any reasonable order to remedy a violation under this chapter. The order may include the following:

(1) An order that the employee be reinstated in the position or an equivalent position that the employee held before taking the leave described in this chapter.

(2) A requirement that the violator reimburse the complainant for compensation and benefits lost as a result of the violation.

(3) A requirement that the violator pay the complainant for the reasonable attorney's fees incurred to bring the complaint and participate as a party in the informal and formal proceedings under this chapter.

(4) A requirement that the violator pay a civil penalty to the complainant in an amount not to exceed one thousand dollars ($1,000).

Sec. 14. (a) This chapter does not prohibit the employee from taking leave granted under any of the following:

(1) Another law.

(2) A bona fide agreement between the employee and employer or a representative of the employee and the employer.

(3) A policy of the employer.

(b) This chapter does not prohibit an employer from providing school visitation benefits in addition to the requirements of this chapter.

SECTION 2. [EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2004] IC 22-2-13, as added by this act, does not excuse noncompliance with a provision of a collective bargaining agreement or other employment benefit program or plan in effect on July 1, 2004, that is not in substantial conflict with IC 22-2-13, as added by this act. IC 22-2-13, as added by this act, does not justify an employer reducing employment benefits provided by the employer that exceed the benefits required by IC 22-2-13, as added by this act.

SECTION 3. [EFFECTIVE UPON PASSAGE] (a) Notwithstanding IC 22-2-13-10, as added by this act, the commissioner of labor shall carry out the duties imposed upon the commissioner under IC 22-2-13-10, as added by this act, under interim written guidelines approved by the commissioner of labor.

(b) This SECTION expires on the earlier of the following:

(1) The date rules are adopted under IC 22-2-13-10, as added by this act.

(2) July 1, 2005.

SECTION 4. An emergency is declared for this act.
